

BRITISH DRESSAGE SUPPORTERS CLUB

Data Protection Regulations

New regulations came into force on 25 May 2018 and we have to provide you with information on our data policy and how we use the data you give us. BDSC's policy is set out in the following privacy notice. It does not change our basic approach as we do not share any information we collect from you with any other person without your specific consent.

BDSC Privacy Notice

BDSC intends to use your data for the purposes of administering the membership of our organisation. We will not use your information for any other reason without asking you. We collect your data through on line submission and paper documents. Our lawful basis for processing your information is your written consent, any legal requirement and any contract entered into. Our data retention periods follow the statutory guidelines. We may retain your information for longer during your membership.

You have the right:

- To be provided with the data that we hold relating to you
- To rectify/update the data
- To ask us to remove the data
- To restrict processing
- To data portability
- To object to the use of your data
- And not to be subjected to automated decision making including profiling.
